Shadows in the morning
Often leaning northward
Often leaning southward
Always indicating a New Day.

Aurora, symbol of Dawning,
Casts its golden light
Upon this first year Of Olivet Nazarene College.

Let us behold the events
Of this first year
In Morning Shadows
Of a New Day.

DORMITORY

"It transmutes aliens into trusting friends."

"Allur'd to brighter worlds, and led the way."

DINING HALL

GYMNASIUM

"The mind ought sometimes to be diverted,
That it may return the better to thinking."

POWER PLANT

"I know of nothing sublime which is not some modification of power."

FACULTY APARTMENTS

"Glides the smooth current of domestic joy."

OUR TRUSTEES

We express our appreciation to our trustees, who give their time and effort to the noble cause of maintaining a school with a Christian purpose.

OUR ADMIN

Dr. A. L. Parrott, our President, is possessed of a contagious vision for Olivet. With thrilling optimism he has directed the college through its recent crucialities. The tragic fire, discouraging to many, was to him a challenge; and the puzzle of moving, dreaded by some, was to him the opportunity for a masterful solution. Because of his leadership we naturally feel both grateful and hopeful.

Dr. Parrott's belief in the worthwhileness of his task rests on his faith in the students. To him they are a group who with sincerity will go from Olivet into places of Christian service. This vision is an urge to him in his ministry and to the students in their preparation.

Vice-President of the college is Dr. Laurence H. Howe. Uniquely, when he graduated from Olivet in 1921, he was the only one in the class. In a very true sense he is still a unique man among us. We sense this uniqueness, for example, in the vigor and inspiration and fertility of his chapel addresses. Also his ministry as one of the college pastors is appreciated. Dr. Howe is equally unique as a teacher. His happy blending of humor, wisdom and sincerity makes him a favorite. In addition to these varied services within the student group, he is outstandingly unique as a public relations man.

Professor J. F. Leist is one of our busiest administrators. Although he is the official treasurer of the school, his duties are multiplied in other fields. He carries a full load of teaching in the departments of Theology and Economics. Also, he is one of the pastors of the college church. In addition, he makes many week-end trips as a representative of the school in various district and local meetings. But in the midst of these many pressing duties he is not lost to the students. In a single day he often meets in his office a stream of students who seek counsel or spiritual advice from him.

ISTRATION

Professor C. S. McClain, who graduated from Olivet in 1923, is now Dean of the College and directs our academic program. Also he holds the calendar of all extra-curricular and social activities. In addition to his duties as Dean, he is head of the department of English Language and Literature. One of his chief interests is coaching of debate. In this field he has won recognition among colleges of the Middle West. When Olivet moved to Kankakee, Professor McClain made many friends for the College. He found work in Kankakee for a great many students. As a person Professor McClain is intensely personal, generously helpful, and uniquely humorous.

Professor Jackson O. Rodeffer is the registrar. Since his graduation from Olivet in 1932 he has devoted part of his time to graduate work and part to teaching in his Alma Mater. He has made a valuable contribution to our scholastic standards. He has rendered a special service to the College through his reorganization of the registration system. The new system removes confusion and guards students against enrollment in classes not suitable for their vocational needs. Although he is busily engaged as head of the department of Education and Psychology and as registrar, he finds time to help individual students in planning their work for graduation here and for graduate work elsewhere.

To the residence students the best known of the administrators is Miss Mildred Durigg, the Dean of Women. Her efficiency is manifested in the dining hall, where she presides and promotes an atmosphere of refinement. Her efficiency in moving the large college family into the new four-story dormitory was praiseworthy. She is friendly to strangers, helpful to those in need, and forgiving to those who err.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF '41

A spirit of oneness has characterized all the activities of the class of 1941 from the time of its first organization. There have been harmonious cooperation among the members of the class and amicable relationships with other classes.

Individuality has been the keynote of the class social functions. In 1938, they gave a formal May-Day party for the sophomores, with all the attendant formality of choosing a May Queen and winding the Maypole. Later, the recreation room became a dimly lighted barn, strewn with farm implements, corn stalks, and bales of hay when the class sponsored a husking bee for the freshmen in the fall of '39. A masquerade party in Joneses' basement, a hay ride, and a hobo hike were among the other highlights of this sophomore year. In the fall of their third year, the class spent a memory-creating evening at Purinton's cottage on Vermilion Lake. "Stars" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Banquet, held at Mudlavia, Indiana. The theme was borne out through blue and silver invitations and decorations and through a program of speeches and organ music. The social activities of their senior year have been a picnic at Bird Park on the Kankakee River, and a formal Christmas party for the junior class at the Hotel Kankakee.

The outstanding memory of those social functions held exclusively by the members of the class of '41 has been the forming of the unbroken chain of friendship and the silent pledge and prayer by each individual that God will keep him from being the "weak link" in the chain.

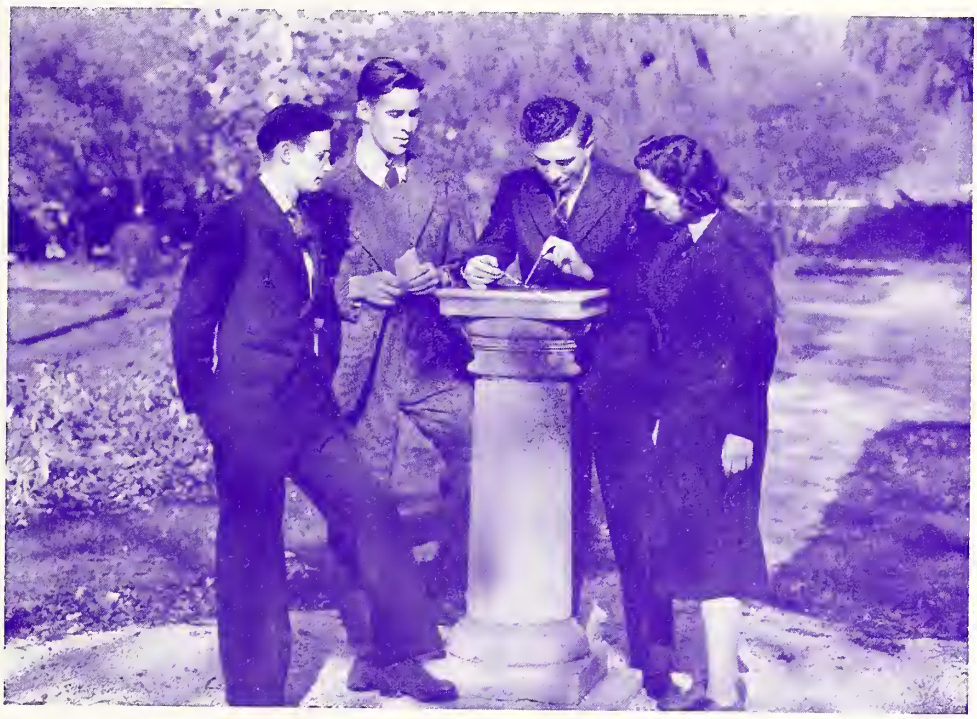

The class will always remember their junior trip. Leaving the campus at midnight, they chartered a bus at Indianapolis and headed south. They visited Asbury College, Lexington, Kentucky, High Bridge, the Lincoln Memorial, and Mammoth Cave.

The class has been noted for a high degree of spirituality. Class prayer meetings were held regularly during revivals. Scholastically, the class has maintained a high average.

Leaders of the class have changed from time to time. It was a loss when Professor and Mrs. C. V. Jones, who had sponsored the class for three years, left our school. But Professor C. S. McClain has efficiently taken the place of the sponsor of the class of '41. Hiram J. McLendon, who has served as president of the class for the last three years, deserves special mention for his capable leadership. Miss Lois Kendall has the distinction of having served as secretary of the class all four years.

Juniors—Time, Time, Time. A past and a future within their college life. The three years within the school environment have made many radical changes in the plans and ambitions of the members of this class. They see their path behind them as the shadow on the sundial. That path cannot be erased. Before them they see a path untrod as the unshadowed part of the sundial in the morning. May the shadows cast by the lives they shall live be shadows of usefulness.

THE ORPHEUS CHOIR

To become a member of the Orpheus Choir is the coveted goal of every aspiring vocalist of O. N. C. Membership is restricted to past or present students of voice in the School of Music.

The activities of this group are exacting and diversified. The choir appeared for a number of special occasions in the college chapel and presented the special music for the college church for one Sunday of each month. The spring tour took the group to the Michigan, Wisconsin, and Northern Indiana districts and into the Chicago area.

Outstanding in the 1941 repertoire were such numbers as the brilliant and dramatic "Te Deum in G," the negro spiritual, "Deep River," and unique interpretations of several familiar hymns such as "Just As I Am" and "I Need Thee Every Hour."

VOICE DEPARTMENT

The human voice has been rightly said to be the most beautiful and expressive of all the instruments known to man. No voice, however, can reveal its true beauty unless it be the object of long and arduous hours of carefully supervised cultivation.

The Voice Department of Olivet College, directed by Mrs. Naomi Larsen, is giving to young singers both vocal training and an appreciation for the classics. It may be rightfully said that our Voice Department has a distinct mission to perform in that its chief aim is to equip young singers to carry the gospel of Jesus Christ to needy men and women through the medium of song.

PIANO

The Piano Department, including students from beginning to graduate standing, is larger this year than ever before. The curriculum includes studies in technique, rhythm, and interpretation of classical music, sacred songs, and offertory style. The department features its students in various recitals throughout the year. These recitals not only give the students experience on the public platform but also add much to the enjoyment and cultural life of the whole student body.

CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT

Musicians usually begin their careers as children. Therefore, included in the Piano Department is the Children's Department. During the week more than a score of tiny tots and children of all ages from homes in Kankakee and Bradley, as well as those on our own campus, wend their way to the music hall. Mrs. Larsen, Mrs. Greenlee, and Miss Flint teach these beginning students.

AEOLIAN SINGERS

The Aeolian Singers were organized this year by Mrs. Larsen. The sextette consists of Leah Voigt, Virginia Trent, first sopranos; Mabel Grubb, Fonda Bearinger, second sopranos; Lois Carpenter, Kathryn Zook, altos.

They were all members of the Orpheus chorus and added interest to an Orpheus concert. They have also participated in the Sunday services, recitals, and various social functions. They excel equally in both sacred and secular music.

APOLLO QUARTET

The Apollo Quartet consists of Otis Bell, first tenor; Byron Carmony, second tenor; Harold Fitzgerrel, baritone; and James Everett, bass. Their 10,000-mile tour last summer included the Wisconsin-Upper Michigan, Northern Indiana, Indianapolis, and Chicago Central districts and a trip to the General Assembly. According to office records their student prospect list was of unprecedented size.

After their summer work they were retained as the official quartet to travel during the winter months.

RECORDING

The addition of a complete outfit of modern recording equipment is another singularly valuable addition to the music department. Installed in a specially constructed studio, it gives reception in an adjoining room as in a modern radio station. The addition of this equipment makes it possible for students of voice or instrumental music to achieve more rapid advancement by hearing and criticizing their own performances.

ORPHEUS QUARTET

The newly organized Orpheus Quartet is composed of two former members and two new ones. Wendell Wellman, first tenor, and Robert Condon, second tenor, have represented the school in the past and are well known on the Educational Zone. Two new members, Wesley Poole, baritone, and Leslie Parrott, bass, take the places of Ray Moore and Dale Moore, who have traveled for the past three years. The new quartet was selected last fall in order that they might work together in preparing a repertoire for their summer tour.

BAND

Under the direction of Mr. Harold Fitzgerrel during the past three years the College Band has become a praiseworthy organization. It has been the heart-throb of many school activities this year, including parades, basketball games, and band concerts. The highest peak of performance by the band this season was the concert given during May Festival Week. Mr. Joubert Arseneau and Mr. Harold Frye were the soloists. The program met the approval of the entire listening audience.

BRASS SEXTET

The Brass Sextet, a musical ensemble organized this year, consists of Don Gibson, Llewellyn Tucker, David Vaughn, Victor Sutch, Raymond Westmark, and Harold Frye. The Brass Sextet in rendering with mellow timbre a repertoire consisting of "Prelude for Brass Sextet" by Rachmaninoff, "Prayer" by Wagner, "Ace's Death" by Greig, "Minuet in G" by Beethoven, and other selections of a varied character, has won for itself an optimistic future.

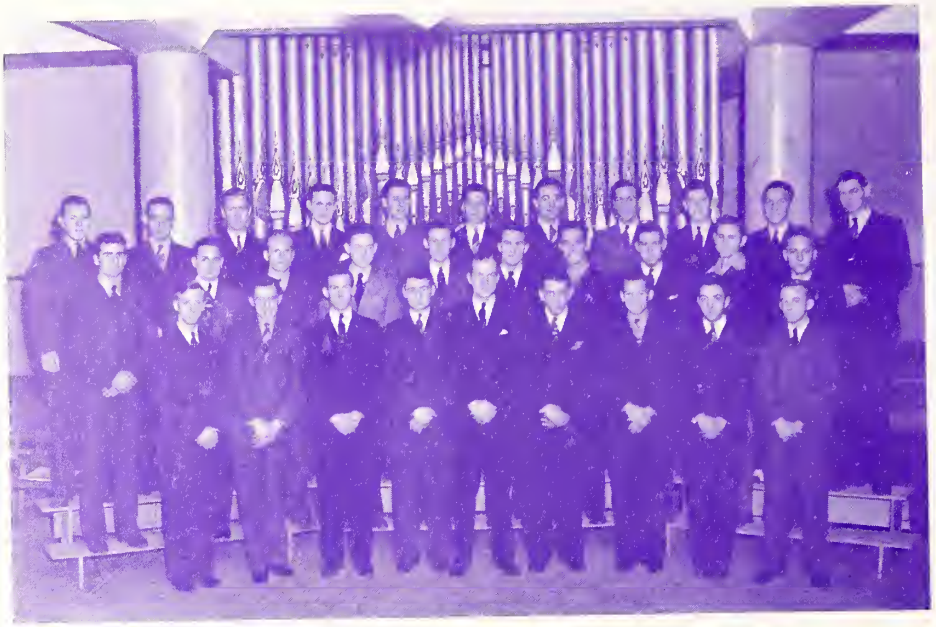

STRING ENSEMBLE

With capable leadership and cooperation the String Ensemble has played creditably this year. Two very favorable numbers from its repertoire were "March Militaire" by Schubert and "Chanson Triste" by Tschaikowsky. It has played for various social functions such as recitals, Kiwanis luncheons, and the May festival. The String Ensemble has added greatly to the prestige of the music department.

STRING TRIO

The String Trio was organized this year under the leadership of Mrs. Larsen. It consists of Jack Rossman, pianist; Jeanne Olson, cellist; and Berj Berberian, violinist. It is outstanding for its lovely chamber music and has been the high light on many programs.

The Male Glee Club is composed of those men students who desire to become better acquainted with ensemble singing. Four-part arrangements of folk tunes and classics are the repertoire. This organization, under the direction of Ray H. Moore, helps to prepare able students for membership in the quartets or Orpheus Choir.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

LADIES' GLEE CLUB

The Ladies' Glee Club, using two-part and three-part arrangements of familiar songs, is made up of students who enjoy group singing. The two Glee Clubs rehearsed together the second semester and presented several numbers as a mixed choir on a spring program.

STUDENT COUNCIL

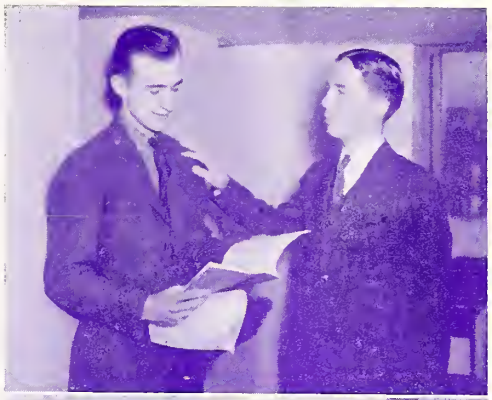

The Student Council is organized each year by the students as a formal means by which they voice their desires in the administration of the school. Last spring the student body elected Hiram J. McLendon as the president and Paul L. Schwada as treasurer of the Council. Shortly after school started in September, the various classes elected the following persons to represent them in the Council: Esther Marie Moore, senior; Edward Richey, junior; Victor Sutch (not in the picture), sophomore; Hubert King, freshman; Floyd Hagley and Frieda Reiss, Bible College; and Norma Brown, high school. Esther Marie Moore was chosen by the Council as secretary. Professor Leonard Goodwin was the faculty representative.

Many projects of student interest claimed the attention of the council. One outstanding accomplishment was sponsoring student action to purchase a new sound projector for use in the science, language, and music departments. Perhaps the most visible work of this body was the regular Friday morning chapel service, over which Mr. McLendon presided. During the year an interesting variety of programs, representing practically all of the organizations, was presented. Some outstanding programs long to be remembered were the Sunday School Campaign, the promptness program presented by the Honor Society, the Missionary Band program, and the band concerts. Another unique occasion was the presentation of a program through the use of the recorder. We heard the voices of the various talented speakers and singers who had appeared in chapel programs during the year.

Also in the college dining hall on May 20 the Student Council sponsored a formal dinner in honor of the Aurora staff. On this occasion the 1941 Aurora was presented to the college.

INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE

Twelve Olivet forensic hopefuls were given intercollegiate debate experience this year under the efficient guidance of Prof. C. S. McClain. The squad took part in the following tournaments: Normal at Illinois State Normal University, Normal, Illinois: Whitewater, Wisconsin; Manchester - Huntington, Manchester, Indiana; and the Illinois Intercollegiate Debate League Tournament at Millikan University, Decatur, Illinois. Also various teams visited for practice debates with the following schools: North Central College, Manchester College, Huntington University, Loyola University, and DePaul University. Debate teams from Wheaton College, Greenville College, and Pasedena Nazarene College located at Pasadena, California, were entertained on our campus.

Out of a total of fifty-eight decision debates, Olivet's teams won thirty. Hiram J. McLendon placed in the finals of the Discussion Contest at the Whitewater tournament. In the same tournament Mr. McLendon and Normalee Phillips placed in a five-way tie for second place in individual rating.

The season was started by attending the Normal Tournament in January, when Don Overton and Hiram J. McLendon were entered in the Championship Division. The other men's teams were Beryl Spross and Chris Wiess, Clarence Kimes and Marvin Taylor, who was ranked first in all of his debates during that tournament. The starting four for the women's teams were Rosellen Bradbury and Mary Schwada, Dorothy Fullenwider and Normalee Phillips. Various circumstances caused several changes in the squads during the season. In the middle of the year a new student joined the squad, Miss Ruth Mueller, who went to the final tournament with Mary Schwada contending for the affirmative while Miss Fullenwider and Miss Phillips maintained their negative positions in the women's division. Mr. Taylor and Mr. McLendon for the affirmative with Mr. Spross and Mr. Overton for the negative represented the school in the men's division.

The question for debate this year was: "Resolved that the nations of the Western Hemisphere should form a permanent union."

That the debaters were able to win over half of their total debates in spite of illness and sudden vacancies in the teams speaks well for the coach. Much gratitude is felt on the part of the debaters for Professor McClain's resourcefulness, willingness, and enthusiasm throughout the season.

The man who can speak is the man who will be remembered, for he is the one who has ideas and can give them voice. Opportunities for such expression have been given in a variety of programs sponsored this year by the Forensic Society. Impromptu speaking, the interpretation of classic literary works, and the presentation of original student writings have brought cultural enrichment to the members. Hearing outstanding speakers and studying the achievements of other great ones have also been valuable activities of this group.

FORENSIC

THE PLATONIAN PHILOSOPHICAL CLUB

The Platonian Philosophical Club was organized this year under the sponsorship of Dr. Stephen S. White, head of the department of Philosophy. The purpose of this organization is to introduce its members to the vital problems confronting thinking people today and to help them find a solution consistent with the Christian Faith. The Club studied this year A Philosophy of the Christian Revelation by Edwin Lewis. It welcomed as guest speaker Dr. Charles Hartshorne, an eminent philosopher of the University of Chicago. He delivered an address on the philosophy of Whitehead. The Club, under the sponsorship of Dr. White and the presidency of Paul L. Schwada, has had a year so profitable that it is certain of an even greater future.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Speaking French has become a pleasure instead of classroom drudgery in the activities of Le Cercle Francais. This is an infant organization, formed last fall with sixteen charter members. To increase their knowledge of the French language and their appreciation of French culture, the group have sung in French, worked French puzzles, played French games, read French stories, and listened to French phonograph records.

Professor Goodwin has sponsored the organization. Officers for the year were Lois Kendall, Lolita Younger, Normalee Phillips, Victor Sutch, and Hiram J. McLendon.

Meetings have been conducted in French as much as has seemed practical. The entire group has gained a better knowledge of the French language.

OLIVET LENSMEN

Several students had talked of a camera club, but it took Professor D'Arcy to organize the club that is called The Olivet Lensmen.

The Club elected as officers the following persons: Professor D'Arcy, sponsor; Keith St. John, president; Ralph Gray, vice-president; Wanda Felesena, secretary-treasurer; and Bob Ward, sergeant-at-arms.

Clarence Kimes was selected by the advisory board to be the chairman of the program committee. Through the aids sent by Eastman, the club has listened to four very interesting and helpful lectures supplemented by slides. To climax the year The Olivet Lensmen presented to the public a sound film, Highlights and Shadows.

This organization seeks to promote knowledge and interest in photographic work as a delightful hobby. "How to take and develop better pictures" is its theme.

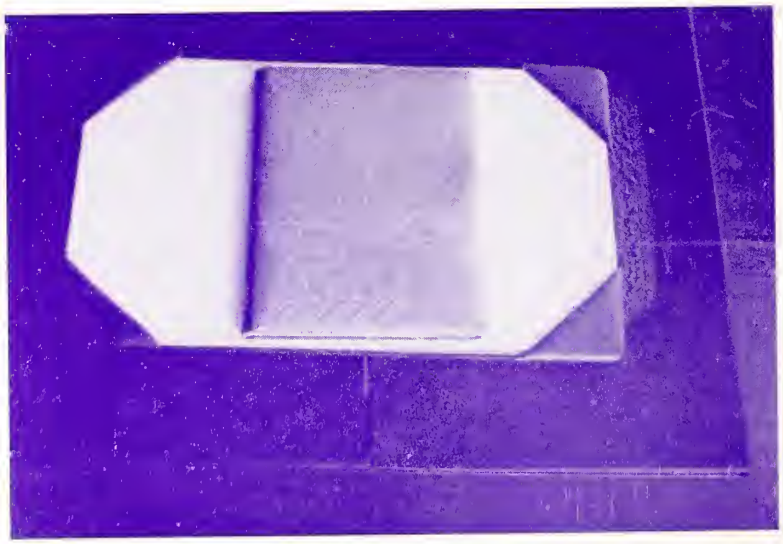

EVERGREEN STAFF

Of all the pleasures of being a freshman, one of the greatest is derived from the publication of the Evergreen. What is the Evergreen? It is a book composed of the best writings of the Rhetoric W Class. Its purpose is manyfold. It gives to this class a higher goal to strive toward, an added zeal in their work, and a lasting remembrance of their college rhetoric days.

While to them the Evergreen means many hours of work to improve their writings, to the other students it will be a pleasurable inspiration to read the copy that will be placed in the library. The publication of the Evergreen is an achievement of which the Rhetoric W Class may be justly proud.

THE AURORA

The Aurora, the yearbook and also the oldest publication of the College, has published its twenty-eighth volume this year. Though the name of the school has been changed twice, the name of the yearbook has remained the same through the years.

Its purpose is to help students to live again the golden hours spent at the school and to acquaint the constituency with the college life. As a special project this year the Aurora has endeavored to pay special regard to the alumni of the school. It is an earnest desire to lay claim to the loyalties of the alumni for their Alma Mater. Even though the location of the school has changed, the spirit of the school characterized by the Aurora lives on.

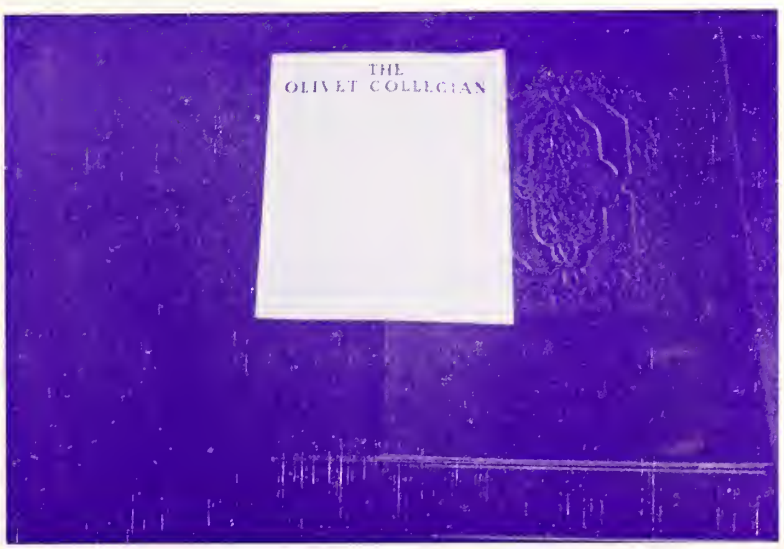

OLIVET NEWS

With the coming of the school to the new location came also the school's first student newspaper, The Olivet News. Under the able editorship of Glenn Wilde and his assistant, Willard Taylor, the paper has appeared twice each month to furnish the student body and constituency with an account of the day-to-day life and happenings at Olivet. The readiness with which many advertisers support the paper reveals the good will of business men toward the college. The Olivet News has the first year won a claim to a permanent place in the college life.

The Olivet Collegian, edited by our vice-president, Dr. Laurence H. Howe, is sent each quarter to pastors, prospective students, and alumni to acquaint them with news and announcements from the administration, problems and advances of the college. Bringing the college and constituency closer together, it is an organ of goodwill and friendship.

THE OLIVET COLLEGIAN

PHI DELTA LAMDA

Some students attain honors in athletics, some in debate, and some in music or other fine arts, but those who have met the requirements for the Phi Delta Lamda Chapter of the National Honor Society have achieved recognition in the most unpopular field of college activity, that of the regular studies.

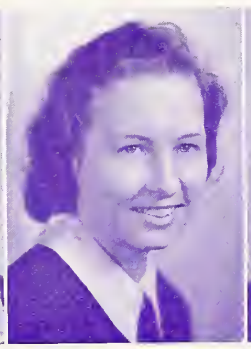

Until this year our honor students have realized only local distinction, but at our last general assembly an honor system was adopted by all of our Nazarene colleges. Dean Monroe of Eastern Nazarene College was elected national Chairman, and Mr. Mann of that institution was elected secretary-treasurer. Each school is permitted one official representative in this organization. Professor McClain, who has served for several years as faculty sponsor of the honor society, is the representative of Olivet.

Under the recently adopted system any student maintainmg a point average of 2.50 for two consecutive semesters is eligible to membership in the society. Any student who has ever finished any Nazarene college with honors will be recommended for membership. Life membership is based upon the grade of B, and it cannot exceed fifteen percent of the graduating seniors.

A general committee has been authorized to select a pin and name for the national society.

The members of Phi Delta Lamda have contributed not only toward the development of scholastic interest throughout the entire school but have also sponsored an energetic campaign against tardiness. They have discovered that promptness and achievement cannot be divorced.

WHO'S WHO

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges is an annual publication which serves as a standard of recognition for deserving students comparable to such agencies as Phi Beta Kappa and the Rhodes Foundation. Yet it is entirely free of initiation fees, dues, and politics. The selections are made with the collaboration of deans and presidents of the various schools represented.

To be included in Who's Who, a student must have a combination of the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and potentialities for future usefulness. From Olivet the following persons were given this recognition:

HIRAM J. McLENDON

CHAPEL SPEAKERS

Rev. Roy V. Starr, the popular District Superintendent of the Michigan District, held the fall revival. The keynote of the campaign was "The Christian Way of Life". The Annual Lecture Series, sponsored by Evangelist Harold Volk, brought to the College one of the most outstanding men of the Church, Dr. J. B. Chapman, who spoke twice daily in the chapel on the Doctrine of the Nazarene Church. Rev. and Mrs. Haldor Lillenas gave us an evening devoted to gospel hymns and praise. The happy spirit of these two people, who have served their Master in the ministry of song, inspired our hearts to continue joyfully in his service. Rev. Lillenas told us the stories behind the songs we love to sing.

A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens was entertainingly presented by Mr. F. Elmer Marshall just before the Christmas holidays. The story of Scrooge was given in a simple but moving manner. Miss J. Evelyn Fox, R.N., who has served for eight years as Director of Nurses' Training School of the Raleigh Fitkin Memorial Hospital, Swaziland, South Africa, spoke in chapel. Her enlightening message stirred in us a renewed devotion to missions. Rev. Eddie Patzsch, evangelist and singer, presented two programs of religious songs. His good spirit brightened our lives. Rev. Patzsch sings with ease and puts a message into his singing. One of the speakers whom Rev. Montgomery brought to Olivet was Dr. O. J. Nease. His sparkling, sincere talk moved us up a rung on the ladder of Christian experience. Welcomed to our chapel service was Rev. T. T. Liddell, evangelist and singer. His ministry was greatly appreciated.

Dr. Philpott of Toronto, Canada, evangelist for the city wide revival in Kankakee, spoke at a chapel service during his labors in the city. His senescence did not prevent his speaking with force to Olivet youth. Rev. U. E. Harding, who sees through the eyes of the dead, is living testimony that miracles are being performed in our day. In his chapel talk he blended humor and Christian sincerity. Adding to the variety of speakers for the college year, Mr. Joe Ong of Canton, China, gave us a message about China and it problems. The Spring revival with Rev. and Mrs. Charles Templeton closed with victory for many students. We are happy to have had these accomplished young people, who have given their talents to Christ.

THE FOUR PASTORS

Olivet students have been especially blessed this year in having as their church leaders not merely one pastor but four. On the first Sunday of the month Dr. A. L. Parrott led the religious services with the musical assistance of the Orpheus Choir. Dr. L. H. Howe succeeded Dr. Parrott as minister on the second Sunday and was followed by Professor J. F. Leist. Dr. S. S. White completed the list of ministers for the College Church.

These four religious leaders were generous in contributing their services gratis to the student body. Funds that would otherwise have gone for the salary of an outside minister were contributed to the Olivet College Library. The students wish to express sincere gratitude and thanks for this gesture of interest and also for their fine spiritual leadership.

Further religious encouragement was given the student body through the everyday pause for worship during the chapel hour. This period was made especially beneficial by the many inspirational talks by our own faculty and outside speakers.

CHAPEL SINGING

STUDENT PASTORS

CALLED MISSIONARY BAND

"Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men," said Jesus. Simon and Andrew heeded the call and straightway dropped their work and followed Him.

The same clear call sounds today. We, too, have heard the voice of the Master and would gladly consecrate our lives to His service. Through the year the group meets for inspiration and fellowship, to acquaint ourselves with the various fields of service to which we are called, to pray for those missionaries already on the battlefield, and to strengthen ourselves for the work ahead. Professor Bushey, returned missionary from China, is the advisor for the Band, and to him we owe much.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS BAND

One of the school organizations contributing directly to the training of Christian workers, in any walk of life, is the Christian Workers Band. Within this group are future ministers, missionaries, song evangelists, musicians, and laymen, who are afforded various opportunities to engage in active Christian work while in school.

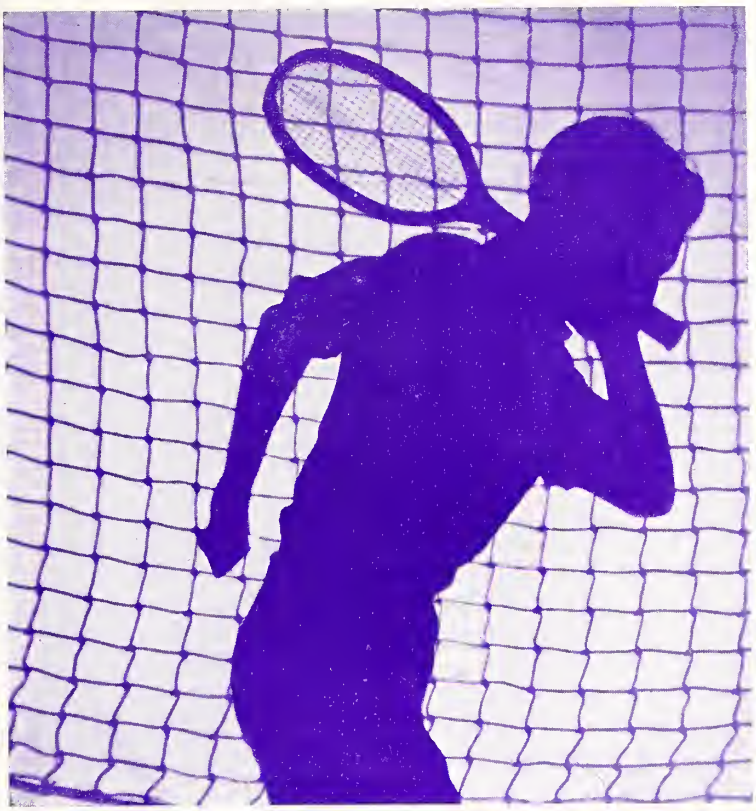

This past year, under the sponsorship of Professor J. F. Leist and the inspiring leadership of the president, Ronald Bishop, the Band has succeeded in its pioneer work of opening up new channels of service in this, our new location.

N. Y. P. S.

This year the student body was divided into seven equal groups representing the seven churches of Asia Minor as listed in the book of Revelation. The Young People's president, Keith St. John, presided over the District Assembly. Seven efficient students were selected as pastors, who were to see that their N. Y. P. S. budgets were raised. Interest was stirred up among the members for attendance, and the various churches took turns in having charge of the Sunday night services. A second District Assembly was held in April to end the series of services. Once each month missionary services were presented to keep up the interest in missions. The vice-president of the N. Y. P. S. was Ray Van Giesen. The secretary-treasurer was Lefa Pash. We are thankful for their leadership.

Welcome!

"O" CLUB

The Women's "O" Club is an active organization in the school. Membership in the club has been granted to athletes earning letters or numerals by outstanding ability and performance.

Miss Mary Gunnoe, a leader in athletics for the past four years, was chosen club sponsor. The officers are Wilma Gibson, president; Irene Klingman, vice-president; Miriam Gregg, secretary.

The success of the Men's "O" Club is due in a large extent to the efficient leadership of Henry Crawford, the president. Long will be remembered the initiation of new members. At the conclusion of a process of paddling, ducking, and otherwise welcoming the new recruits, they signed the armistice to the tune of sizzling frankfurters and steaming coffee. The climax of the year was reached in April when these men went to the Hieland Country Club for their annual banquet.

INDIAN ATHLETIC SOCIETY

OFFICERS

WOODRUFF ..... President
SCHNEIDER ..... Men's Coach
FELESENA ..... Women's Coach

The Indians, with most of last year's regulars back, supported some mediocre pitching with hard hitting and good fielding to win the championship. Three players, Schneider, s.s., Carrier, o.f., and Smashey, p., were picked on the all-school team. The team finished the season with 4 victories out of 6 games.

The basketball team placed second in the first team race with 2 wins and 4 losses, dropping most of their games with small margins. Three men earned positions on the all-star team. The second team placed first with a perfect record of 6 wins.

The Indian girls' softball team came through the season with a victorious chart, every game being chucked full of thrills and sensational plays. The pitching of Opal Rose and Wanda Felesena was always a contribution to their success. "Power in the pitches" is the phrase for this team. The girls were surely able to wield the old war club around to connect in every game.

Led by Wanda Felesena, the Indian girls' basketball team was a constant threat this year to the women society teams. Fighting hard in every game for the Indian Club, the girls showed real sportsmanship. Several players are lost by graduation, but the Indian girls are still optimistic.

SPARTAN ATHLETIC SOCIETY

OFFICERS

H. CRAWFORD.....President
HARMON.....Men's Coach
GREGG.....Women's Coach

The Spartans had good pitching and excellent hitting, but several bad breaks in the pinches cost them several close games. They should be a strong contender next season, as they will not be seriously handicapped by graduation. They won 2 games but lost 4. Wellman, o.f., Hansen o.f., Spross, p. and M. Taylor, 2b., made the all-school team.

The Spartans dominated the first-team race with six straight wins. Although hard pressed at times, they used their speed, height, and aggressiveness to keep their perfect record unmarred. Their starting five, which averaged 6 feet 1 inch, placed four men on the all-star team. The second team placed third.

The Spartan girls closed a great season of competition in the society softball tournament. The pitching staff of this team consisted mostly of young recruits and therefore left much of the heavy work on the fielders. Although the team did not finish in first place, they offered very stiff competition and were always a constant threat. Outstanding players were Miriam Gregg, Jeanne Hershey, and Margaret Bradley.

Although they have not taken front ranks, the Spartan girls' basketball team has given much competition to the other teams. A real asset to the Spartan Club was Jeanne Hershey with her outstanding guarding. Miriam Gregg and Joyce Albert were also valuable players.

TROJAN ATHLETIC SOCIETY

OFFICERS

WILLARD TAYLOR — President
GOUTHEY JONES — Men's Coach
WILMA GIBSON — Women's Coach

The Trojans, handicapped by graduation, were slow to start but ended the season with a strong finish, winning 3 games and losing 3. They were awarded four places on the all-school team: Rice, c., Jones, 1b., Miller, o.f., and W. Taylor, 3b. A number of freshmen played regular, giving promise of a strong team next year.

Considering the lack of height, the Trojans made a fine showing. They were victorious in 1 of the 6 first team games. One man made the all-star team. Since they lose no one by graduation, they will be strong contenders next year. The second team placed second with 2 wins and 4 loses.

The Trojan girls are great contenders in softball as well as in basketball. Led by the mighty batting of Wilma Gibson, this women's team set a fast pace. Little Durieux was also a constant threat at the bat. Mary Schwada, Lois Carpenter, and Lefa Pash were main stays for the Trojan girls. After adding much sport to this year's tournament, this team is already planning for next season.

The Trojan girls have performed in championship style again this year. With the scoring power of Gibson and Carpenter, the fighting spirit of Durieux and the defensive strength of Pash and Bradbury they have proved that teamwork is their greatest asset. With no players graduating, this team has bright prospects for next year.

BETHANY DEFEATS OLIVET

Kankakee, Ill., Jan. 24.—Before an overflow crowd, Bethany-Peniel defeated the Olivet Tigers 45-38 in one of the most thrilling cage tilts of the season.

Coach Crawford's Olivet Tigers gained an early lead and were ahead of the Oklahoma invaders at the half, but early in the third quarter the Bethany team opened an offensive attack and in the fourth quarter broke in a victory surge.

OLIVET NOSED OUT BY BETHANY

Bethany, Okla., Feb. 28.—Leading at the half by 16 points, the Bethany boys were able to hold off an Olivet rally until the ending gun sounded at 36-30. Nearly tying the score in the fourth quarter, the Olivet Tigers were unable to overcome the huge lead that the Oklahoma boys chalked up in the first half.

OLIVET WHIPS BETHANY

Kankakee, Ill., Jan. 25.—Showing an abundance of teamwork and defensive play, the Olivet Tigers downed the Bethany team 41-21. While the band played the Olivet Pep Song and the crowd roared with enthusiasm, Olivet chalked up a score almost twice that of the Oklahoma cagers. Brilliant guarding by the home boys prevented the invaders from connecting with the laced hoop. In this Saturday night game Olivet showed her superiority through team work and cooperation.

OLIVET OUTSCORES BETHANY

Bethany, Okla., March 1.—From start to finish it was the Tigers all the way, 40-21 was the score. Cheered on by a large crowd that filled the Bethany College gymnasium. the team from Illinois made an impressive showing of college basketball. It was a clean, hard-fought battle all the way.

JUNIORS WIN CLASS TOURNAMENT

The 1941 class tournament proved to be one of the most thrilling in the history of Olivet basketball. The juniors finished last in the round robin, sophomores third, freshmen second, and the seniors first. Although picked to be last, the juniors defeated the seniors in the finals. Each member of the junior team has been given a sterling silver basketball inscribed with raised letters, "1941—CHAMPIONS".

The reputation of a school is to a great extent made by its alumni. Though comparatively small in number our alumni have left us a good heritage. This is concretely shown by the outstanding graduates who are now in prominent places in the church and in other fields of labor. Accreditment has been granted to the College partly because of the excellent record made by our graduates in the universities where they have taken graduate work. It is for this reason that we, the Aurora staff, wish to give recognition in this our first yearbook in the new location to those who have given us a goodly heritage.

The Aurora has cooperated with the Alumni Executive Secretary in compiling the roster of all graduates of the College, Bible School, Fine Arts Department, and High School. In spite of the fact that extensive effort has been made to contact all alumni, the roster in instances is incorrect and incomplete. The Alumni Executive Secretary, Linford A. Marquart, will appreciate receiving correction on any information given.

We are fortunate in having on the faculty thirteen graduates of the college. They are Professors Greer, '18; McCain, '23; Bushey, '33; Strickler, '29; Howe, '21; Rodeffer, '32; Larsen, '33; Gilley, '26; Marquart, '28; Spangler, '39; D'Arcy, '29; Davidson, '39; and Perry, '39. They are named in the order of their seniority.

THE AURORA

November 1, 1940

Substitute editor lands in middle of empty room 36, the new Aurora office. . . no furniture. . . end of first day finds necessary furniture in office. . . Fitzgerrel arrives with good idea for athletic section. . . photographer coming next week. . . make schedules for 400 individual pictures. . . scores of group pictures. . . questions. . . questions . . . questions . . . Smashey, high school representative, helps. . . ex-editors Byron, Esther, and Hiram laugh with understanding editorial glee. . . when will the Aurora be out. . . next week (ironical). . . in May. . . perhaps. . . Prof. Strickler, faculty adviser, very encouraging. . . it is time for Aurora contest. . . school too large for contest sales campaign should be started before Thanksgiving . . . how about starting it day after tomorrow in chapel. . . Fitzgerrel could present it. . . Fitzgerrel puts it over. . . 1000 contacts asked. . . 2445 contacts promised. . . letters, letters, we pay postage. . . sales start coming in. . . Hunter ahead. . . Van Gorder ahead. . . one letter "please send Aurora by return mail". . . Van Gorder wins. . . campaign dubbed success. . . last call for proofs . . pictures make nice Christmas presents. . . unprecedented sales. . . engravers start coming. . . we need a staff. . . faculty approves. . . genial, efficient Ron Bishop for assistant. . . petite Lora Lee Montgomery for associate. . . classifications. . . is he a freshman or unclassified? . . I like silhouettes. . . how about senior silhouettes? . . they will help in developing the theme . . how about that alumni section? . . we send out 400 letters. . . alumni answer. . . Robert Wood of Canada first to answer. . . alumni buy Auroras too. . . Keith St. John industriously takes pictures. . . Carol holds the light. . . Brother Montgomery loans us an excellent camera. . . First dummy completed. . . shall we use blue or purple if we use color? . . purple and gold are school colors. . . glossies return. . . who are these people? . . these five never went to school here. . . I didn't get my picture taken, when will that photographer be back? . . engraver's contract signed. . . genial Anse Cox helps us start a blitzkreig of copy to Champaign. . . book cover companies start visiting us. . . how do you like this cover? . . it's original and carries out the theme. . . let's do something different with these formal pictures. . . will that be so different it's silly? . . arranging pictures is like a cross-word puzzle. . . boy . . girl . . boy . . girl . . are any of them looking off the page? . . if this picture is 5 inches wide how high should it be? . . how many words should be in this write-up? . . 16 words per square inch. . . Bill Blue from college department and Lois Carpenter from music department want to know why the write-ups don't start coming in. . . announcement in chapel. . . "strong possibility Auroras will be out August 15, 1941. . . (groans) . . unless write-ups come in by Tuesday night. . . (laughs)" . . write-ups start coming in. . . volunteers or draftees accept privilege of writing personality sketches. . . how will you want to remember these people? . . it's hard to be not too gushy and yet be truthful. . . nightmares. . . responsibility so diluted that no one really wrote them. . . proofs start returning from engraver. . . views are beautiful. . . how about a banquet to present book to student body. . . work late at night. . . editorial cokes. . . work Saturday afternoons. . . Keith helps editor put progress chart on blackboard. . . little checks indicating copy to engraver and completed write-ups continue to multiply. . . does that theme sound all right. . . how complete is that alumni roster?. . . Prof. Marquart works harder than a staff member. . . waiting . . waiting . . working . . waiting . . why don't those proofs come. . . dummy must be proof-read. . . proofreader suggests many write-ups be revamped. . . Rosellen types and re-types as fast as we can read. . . strange as it may seem, even editors, typists and helpers get sleepy sometimes. . . I'm sorry I can't do that. . . I have to work tonight. . . The Aurora must come out on time. . . it was work building it. . . but we have enjoyed it. . . and hope you like it. . . for. . . here it is. . .

AN APPRECIATION TO . . .

Our Advertisers

The production of a year book is not financially practical without the assistance of the advertisers.

Their products and services are commended to the attention of our readers.
